

AN EVENING WITH MICHAEL NAGLER

Reading and Conversation

AQUS Café
189 H St, Petaluma
Monday, July 28
6:30 – 8pm

Michael Nagler will read from his new book, The Nonviolence Handbook - A Guide for Practical Action, share stories from real life, and answer questions.

This practical handbook is a brief guide to the core principles and strategies at the heart of nonviolent resistance.

Michael Nagler distills the guiding principles of nonviolence into this straightforward, practical, and short handbook that will help anyone use that force more safely and effectively for personal and social change.

Michael will also discuss his recent trip to Palestine.

Books will be available for sale and signing.
